1986 Outlook

Speed and quickness, two deficiencies in last year's 1-10 team, will hopefully appear on the gridiron for MSU this season as the Eagles look for an improved 1986 campaign.

The coaching staff feels confident about the 33 returning lettermen and 16 returning starters, eight on offense and eight on defense.

"I feel confident about our returning talent, especially our large number of fifth year seniors (15)," head football coach Bill Baldrige said. "Offensively we need to fill the runningback and offensive guard positions. Other than that, we have experience back at the other positions."

MSU will play a strong non-conference schedule this season with trips to Marshall and Wichita State and home dates against James Madison and Kentucky State.

Coach Baldrige also likes the format of his OVC schedule this year. The Eagles open league play against Austin Peay at home before traveling to Tennessee Tech.

"In the past we have opened OVC play against Middle Tennessee and Murray State, two perennial powers in the league," he said. "Hopefully, we can improve as the season goes along and be more prepared for those teams during the second half of the season."

Offensive Line

This looks to be a strong point on MSU's offense with four starters returning. Heading the pack are offensive guard Billy Poe and center Howard Jacobs. Poe, a 6-3, 273 pound senior from Ironton, Ohio is an All-OVC performer and honorable mention All-American. Jacobs, a 6-0, 242 pound senior from Cincinnati, Ohio is a three year starter and potential All-OVC and All-American player.

Also back are offensive tackle Joe Wagner (6-4, 265, Sr.) and offensive guard Mike Grim (6-0, 245, Sr.), both will start.

MSU has plenty of experienced backups including long snapper Matt Yeoman, Bill Wietmarschen and Sam DuVall.

Backfield

This is a spot on the offense in which MSU does not have an abundance of experience. However, there are some talented candidates.

Junior tailback Jonathan Cage is MSU's returning ground gainer from last year (60 attempts/150 yds./3 TD's). Terry Upshaw and D.D. Harrison will push hard and will get plenty of game work. Look for freshman recruit Kevin Garrett to possibly make some noise at this position.

At fullback, three players will vie for playing time. They are Rodney Gordon, Pete Webb and Terry Gardona.

Gordon is a 6-1 sophomore from Russellville, Ky., while Gardona and Webb are junior college transfers.

Adrian Breen, a 6-4, 190 pound senior, will start at quarterback for MSU. The Cincinnati, Ohio native led the OVC in passing last year (153 ypg). Breen started nine games last year and if he stays healthy, he has the potential for a banner senior season.

His backups are Lance Jansen, John Murphy and Chris Swartz. Jansen played well in MSU's spring game while Murphy will try to rebound from last year's injury. Swartz was one of the top high school quarterback prospects in the state last year.

Receivers

The Eagles return their leading receiver from last year, Steve Collins. The senior tightend grabbed 46 passes for 579 yards and two touchdowns. Also returning are Metry McGaughy (13 rec./119 yds.), Orville Lytle (11 rec./149 yds/1 TD) and Monty Webster (5 rec./65 yds.) MSU is deep at this position with newcomers Jim Wehner, Mark Schlinger, Ty Howard and Brian Brown expected to push for playing time.

Defensive Line

MSU will use the wide tackle-six defense in 1986. Some new faces will appear on the defensive line after a couple of key position changes.

The Eagles lost Barry Williamson, Rick Calcutt, Corey Thomas and Ed Veeneman and Matt Prichard, but have some strong and quick talent ready to take over.

Senior Gary Ramey, who was a member of the offensive line last season, will move to the defensive guard position.

Also expected to start at the guard position is Robert Cain, a 6-1, 270 pound transfer from Santa Rosa Junior College in California.

The defensive tackle positions should be filled by Tony Sergeant and Bruce Ghiselline. Sergeant, a 6-0, 245 pound junior, played linebacker last season and was MSU's third leading tackler (124).

Ghiselline, a 6-1, 235 pound junior, is a transfer from El Camino College.

Tony Clayton, Scott Napier and Darrell Givens, all able backups, will provide the depth.

At the defensive ends positions Dean Lape and Keith Ferrell appear to have the inside track. Lape, a 6-1, 200 pound junior from Cincinnati, is coming off a good spring while Ferrell, a 6-3 junior college transfer from Potomac State, is moving from the defensive back position to provide strength and quickness at one end position.

Bernie Parsons and Jeff Hester will provide backup assistance.

Linebackers

This appears to be the strong suit of the MSU defense with veterans Randy Frazier and John Gilliam leading the way. Frazier, a 6-4, 235 pound senior from Whitesburg, Ky., was MSU's second leading tackler last season and should make All-OVC.

Gilliam, a 6-2, 220 pound junior from Prestonsburg, Ky., was MSU's sixth leading tackler a year ago.

Transfer Jay Koehler, at 6-0, 215 pounds, will push for playing time as will John Blake and Kevin Brown.

The only loss at this position from last year was Doug McMahon, a very talented player from Rantoul, Ill.

Secondary

This position gave MSU problems last year, but the coaching staff went after speed in recruiting for this position, and they feel confident in the talent they have.

The cornerback positions should be handled by Shaun Smith, a 6-0, 190 pound senior from Detroit, Mich., and newcomer John Mansfield, a 5-10, 175 pound junior from Walla Walla Community College.

At free safety, Kelvin Bellamy, MSU's leading tackler last year, returns for his senior season. Bellamy, a transfer from Wesley Community College has all OVC potential.

Providing experienced depth in the secondary are: Shane Fletcher, Mike Metcalf and Monty McIntyre.

Bill Baldrige Head Football Coach

Bill Baldrige returned to Morehead State University in 1984 to become head football coach at his alma mater. Entering his third season, he hopes that his hard work and determination will begin to pay big dividends in the way of victories.

The Eagles have gone 2-9 and 1-10 under Baldrige, but despite those marks the team has been very competitive.

"We feel with a few breaks we could have won some more games last year, but this season I think our kids maturity, game experience and new recruits can get us over that hump," Baldrige said.

Being a native of Morehead, and former player at MSU, Baldrige wants nothing more than to produce a stronger football program.

"Nobody wants to win here more than I do," he said. "This is my home and my staff and I want a winning program."

MSU's eleventh head coach has a solid coaching background. Baldrige started in the ranks as the head coach at Bath County High School in Owingsville, Ky. He built the program practically from scratch and won the Cave Run Athletic Conference his first season. After compiling a 12-8 record in two seasons, Baldrige accepted the head coaching position at Harrodsburg (Ky.) High School. His second year there he won the Central Kentucky Conference Championship and was named "Class A Coach of the Year" by Associated Press and United Press International.

Baldrige's roots in Kentucky go very deep. Not only did he begin his high school coaching career in the Blue Grass State, but he also landed his first collegiate coaching job in Kentucky by taking a position as defensive secondary coach at Georgetown College in 1973. Baldrige returned to Harrodsburg for the 1974 season and took the team to another CKC title, again earning "Coach of the Year" honors.

Working his way up, Baldrige returned to Morehead State and became the defensive secondary coach in 1975. He left MSU to take the head coaching position at Bellevue (Ky.) High School in 1976 and one year later won the state championship, winning "Northern Kentucky Coach of the Year" honors.

From Bellevue, Baldrige moved on to MSU. However, this MSU happened to be Murray State University, where he worked under former Morehead State teammate Mike Gottfried. At Murray, he helped turn a defensive unit that was last in the OVC into the nation's best against the run in 1979 as the Racers won the league title.

In 1980 Baldrige returned to Georgetown College where he began his collegiate head coaching career. He guided the Tigers to a winning season that year in the pass-oriented Heartland Conference, and then rejoined Gottfried in 1981 when he accepted the position of associate head coach at the University of Cincinnati.

Gottfried left UC in 1981 for the head coaching position at the University of Kansas. Baldrige also made the move and accepted the position of defensive tackles and special teams coach before taking over the Morehead State football program in 1984.

In 1984 Baldrige brought a new offensive look as the Eagles featured an aggressive passing game styled after the attack of the Cincinnati Bengals. That style proved to be fatal to opponents as the Eagles finished as the OVC's top passing team in 1984.

Born in Morehead on April 19, 1944, Baldrige and his family moved to Shelby, Ohio, shortly after his birth. He returned to MSU and received a bachelor's degree in 1968 after earning All-OVC honors in 1966, the last year MSU won the OVC title. Baldrige also holds a master's degree from MSU.

Baldrige Up Close

Fred Mariani Offensive Coordinator

Fred Mariani begins his third season on MSU's football staff. After spending two seasons as the Eagle's offensive line coach, Mariani has been elevated to MSU's offensive coordinator.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Mariani served as offensive coordinator for eight years at St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he graduated in 1974. While at St. Joseph's, Mariani saw the Puma's break 46 school records while their passing attack received a top five ranking in the nation in Div. II from 1979 to 1983.

Already Mariani has established the MSU offensive line as one of the best in the OVC in just one season.

Mariani's offensive guidance helped the Pumas win three Heartland Collegiate Conference titles and finish second on three other occasions. He also was a two-year starter for the Pumas as an offensive guard.

The 34-year-old Mariani was a three-year letterman at Don Bosco High School in Ramsey, N.J., and started two seasons. His connections in the New Jersey area allowed the Eagles to recruit several quality athletes from that area the last two years.

Mariani has one daughter, Brook Marie, 3.

Matt Ballard Defensive Coordinator

Matt Ballard begins his third season as MSU's defensive coordinator.

Ballard served under Baldridge at Georgetown College in 1981 as defensive coordinator. When Baldridge left G.C., Ballard then moved to the other side of the ball and became offensive coordinator, leading the Tigers to an 11-10 record over the next two years.

MSU will continue to employ the wide tackle six defense to which Ballard has helped develop and improve over the last three seasons.

The 29-year old native of Charlotte, N.C., lettered in three sports at North Recklenberg High School in North Carolina. Ballard earned a scholarship to Gardner-Webb College in Boiling Springs, N.C., where he played three seasons as quarterback before a knee injury cut his playing career short. The next season he coached the quarterbacks and receivers and helped the team to an 8-2 record.

Ballard and his wife Brenda, a native of Flint, Mich., have one son, Matthew, 2.

Jeff Morrow Quarterback and Receiver Coach

Jeff Morrow joined the Morehead State football staff this past spring and will work extensively with the Eagle quarterbacks and receivers as well as the kicking game.

The 28-year old native of Champaign, Ill. spent last season as quarterback coach at the University of Tennessee which beat Miami of Florida in the Sugar Bowl.

"Jeff adds another dimension of coaching to our program," head coach Bill Baldrige praised. "He comes from a program that broke a lot of records offensively, of which he had a lot of input."

Morrow played two seasons as quarterback at Kent State University before transferring to the University of Evansville where he received a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1981. Prior to his position at UT, Morrow was quarterback coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Evansville from 1981 to 1983.

Phil Zacharias Outside Linebacker Coach

Phil Zacharias begins his first season as outside linebacker coach at Morehead State University.

The 27-year old Zacharias spent last year as outside linebacker coach at the University of North Carolina, and will assume those same duties at MSU.

"We feel very fortunate to have Phil on our staff," MSU head coach Bill Baldrige praised. "Phil worked with the wide tackle six last year at UNC and will be able to step right in and help our outside linebackers."

Prior to his position at UNC, Zacharias was the assistant coach at Saint Paul's College where he worked with the offensive backfield and the secondary. He was also linebacker coach at Georgetown College in 1981.

Zacharias received his bachelor's degree from Salem College in Salem, W. Va., where he played linebacker for four seasons. He later received his master's degree from Georgetown College in 1981.

Zacharias is a native of Sewickley, Pa., and graduated from Quaker Valley High School where he starred in football, basketball and track.

He is single.

Game Notes: Marshall leads the series, which began in 1928, 24-10-3. The Eagles' last win over the Herd came in 1976 when MSU defeated Marshall 31-14. However, because of the use of an ineligible player, the Eagles later had to forfeit. Last year quarterback Carl Fodor completed 20 of 34 passes for 292 yards and three touchdowns as Marshall defeated MSU 27-10 at Jayne Stadium. MSU signal caller Adrian Breen connected on 19 of 31 attempts for 155 yards and one touchdown. The Eagles took an early lead taking advantage of a Marshall turnover and converting it into six points when Breen hit Dennis Carr with a five yard scoring strike. However, the Herd responded by scoring the next 24 points. This marks the 16th time MSU will open the football season against the Herd.

Ohio Valley Conference

History

The idea of forming the Ohio Valley Conference was originated in 1941, but could not be implemented until after World War II. In 1948 five schools—Morehead State, Murray State, Western Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky and Louisville—withdrew from the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and were joined by Evansville in forming the original membership of the OVC. They were joined shortly thereafter by Tennessee Tech and Marshall.

The membership has changed somewhat over the years. Middle Tennessee joined the league in 1952, East Tennessee in 1957 and Austin Peay in 1962. The trio of schools replaced Louisville, which became an independent in 1949, and Marshall and Evansville, which departed in 1952.

East Tennessee withdrew in 1978, making room for Akron and Youngstown State. Western Kentucky left the league in 1982.

In 1955 the National Collegiate Athletic Association formally recognized the OVC as a major basketball conference, awarding the league champion an automatic bid to the NCAA post-season tournament. At that time, the OVC was only the second six-team conference to obtain major status from the NCAA.

For many years the OVC has been represented in the nation's top holiday and post-season basketball tournaments. The league has also won recognition for its football program, placing representatives in a number of post-season bowl games. The OVC has achieved national recognition in NCAA Division I-AA football with a national championship and two runner-up positions in the four years of its existence.

OVC champions have also been prominent on the national scene in baseball, riflery, tennis, track, golf and cross country.

James Delany, former NCAA investigator and graduate of North Carolina, operates as commissioner of the OVC. He is the OVC's fourth commissioner, following Art Guepe (1963-75), Paul Dietzel (1975-76) and Bob Vanatta (1976-79).

Morehead State University

Quality is the byword of Morehead State University as the institution begins its seventh decade of service. Founded in 1922 as a teacher's college, MSU became a university in 1966.

Nestled in the foothills of the Daniel Boone National Forest, Morehead State provides a learning and living environment for nearly 6,300 students and 900 faculty and staff members. The university's 500-acre campus features a 50-structure skyline dominated by the two tallest occupied structures in Eastern Kentucky, 19-story Cartmell Hall and 16-story Mignon Tower.

The university's three academic colleges offer many programs of study from an associate degree to a joint doctoral program. Applied Sciences and Technology, Arts and Sciences, and Professional Studies comprise the academic colleges.

MSU operates under a 10-member Board of Regents. Eight citizens are appointed by the governor of Kentucky and two seats are held by elected faculty and student representatives with full voting rights. The administrative structure consists of three divisions—Academic Affairs, Student Development, and Administrative and Fiscal Affairs.

Morehead State sponsors a full program of intercollegiate sports for men and women as members of the Ohio Valley Conference and National Collegiate Athletic Association. Athletic facilities include a 10,000-seat football stadium with an eight-lane oval track, a newly-completed 7,000-seat arena, a 1,200-seat baseball park, 14 all-weather tennis courts, a nine-hole golf course, an indoor swimming pool and a lighted soccer field.

Jayne Stadium

Jayne Stadium, Morehead State University's lighted 10,000-seat athletic facility, has been the home of the Eagles since 1964.

As preparations began for the 1986 season, arrangements for the possible installation of artificial surface were underway.

Named for William LeGrand Jayne (former MSU professor and head of the extension department), the structure replaced a 3,500-seat stadium which formerly stood on the site of today's Laughlin Health Building. Erected as part of the Breathitt Sports Center, Jayne Stadium was the first new stadium since the 1930s on a Kentucky college campus.

The Eagles opened the stadium with a 35-0 rout of Ohio Valley Conference foe Tennessee Tech. It was dedicated Oct. 17, 1964, as part of Homecoming ceremonies in the Eagles' 14-13 win over Austin Peay.

MSU won three of four games in the stadium its initial season, also defeating Murray State 17-14 and losing to Western Kentucky 9-0.

An eight-lane grasstex running track surrounds the Bermuda grass playing field. The quarter-mile oval was inaugurated in the spring of 1965 as the site of the OVC Spring championships. The OVC meet returned to Morehead State in 1973 and 1980.

Football offices, dressing rooms, two spacious conference rooms, rest rooms, concession areas and equipment storage rooms are located beneath the west grandstand (press box side). Additional dressing facilities, concessions and rest rooms are beneath the east grandstand.

Also located on the stadium's northwest corner is the athletic weight room, a facility funded through private donations. Next to it is MSU's newly complete athletic training facility, also funded through private donations.

Atop the west grandstand is a three-tiered press box which provides facilities for up to 30 writers, statisticians and scouts; five radio booths and four film crews. The middle section houses the university president and his guests during games, while film crews are situated on the top level.

Eagle Sports Network

The excitement of Eagle football will be carried live to the Eastern Kentucky region via the Eagle Sports Network.

WMKY-FM serves as the flagship station of the Eagle Sports Network. The 50,000-watt station, which is licensed to Morehead State University, is located at 90.3 on the FM dial.

A number of stations in the Eastern Kentucky area will join WMKY on the network. Each broadcast will feature a 15-minute pregame show which will include interviews with both coaches, the play-by-play broadcast of the game, and a post-game scoreboard show and interview with Eagle head coach Bill Baldrige.

Dick Teubner, sports director of WMKY radio, will once again provide the play-by-play description this season.

A 1983 graduate from Southwest Texas State, Teubner is in his third year on the Eagle Sports Network. He brings to MSU a great deal of knowledge and experience in athletics. Prior to serving as anchor of the Eagle broadcasts last year, Teubner spent the past 18 years working in various facets of radio, many of them sports related. He also teaches a sportscasting class at MSU.

The Pleasanton, Kansas, native is married to the former Gail Janbazz of Atlantic City, N.J. They have two sons, Darrell, 19, and Brett, 5.
